Delicious! Fun! Salvage Party!

Please bring any leftover ingredients from your home so we can make the most of them at our salvage party. This way we can kill two birds with one stone: you get to learn new recipes and at least lessen the amount of leftover ingredients, or “salvage” leftover ingredients, over the course of one meal! (The “reuse” part below is the salvage)

When: February 24th (Sun.) 10:00-13:00

Where: AOSSA 6F, Food Preparation and Practice Room

Host: Food Salvage representative director, Hirai Takumi

Capacity: 20 (first come, first serve)

Things to Bring: At least 2 leftover ingredients (i.e. vegetables, overseas spices, other processed meat, etc.), apron, hairnet/option to cover your hair.

Registration: Phone registration begins from February 1st (Fri.)

Inquiries/Registration: Fukui Environmental Progression Association, Environmental Affairs Office (Environmental Policy Division)

TEL: 0776-20-5398

Fukui “Michi no Eki” Round and Round Stamp Rally

A stamp rally has begun with 15 roadside stations (Michi no Eki) as reception areas for said stamps. If you manage to collect them all, you can win various prizes such as an Echizen Ware mug cup, Ichi Homare (NEW domestically grown Fukui rice), and more luxurious prizes (prizes are random/until supplies last)!

When: Rally ends February 28th (Thurs.)

How to Obtain: Purchase items or simply enjoy a short meal at 3 or more different roadside stations to receive your stamps. Then, it must be sent in via mail prior to March 6th (Wed.), 2019 (if received on or after March 6th, 2019, your entry may become invalid).

*It is possible to register digitally via smartphone and participate that way, but digital stamp rally is only valid until February 28th (Thurs.), so get those in before time runs out!
