

Upcoming Events/Activities

Glass Art Workshop

With colored glass, copper tape, and a little soldering, you'll be able to make your very own stained glass in this workshop!

When: July 26 (Sun.)

1st session – 10:30 – 12:00

2nd session – 13:30 – 15:00

Where: Fukubuku Kan (Happiring, 2F)

Capacity: 10 (first come, first serve)

Participation Fee: 1700 yen

Application Process: Starts July 15, 2020, by phone only

TEL: 0776-20-2929

Anger Management Lecture

Come learn about different ways to curb your anger with this short anger management information session! This lecture will be given in Japanese.

When: Aug. 22 (Sat.) from 13:30 – 15:30

Where: General Volunteer Center (Happiring, 4F)

Only For: Those who are interested in social work or volunteer work

Lecture Topics: What is “Anger Management”?, Anger’s True Form, and more!

Capacity: 20 (first come, first serve)

Application Process: Starts July 15, 2020 by both phone and email

Contact: General Volunteer Center

TEL: 0776-20-5107

Summertime Exhibition 1: Tokyo 1964 Backstory

As we look forward to the Tokyo Olympics next year, this exhibition looks to add more background information to the 1964 Tokyo Olympics.

When: July 18 (Sat.) – Aug. 30 (Sun.), 2020 from 9:00 – 19:00

*Final admission at 18:30

Closed: Aug. 11 (Tue.), 2020

Where: Fukui City History Museum

Admission Fee: 220 yen

*Middle school students and younger, elder of age 70 or up, and those with disabilities and their accompanied assistant will be granted free admission.

Summertime Exhibition 2: Fukui Clan and the Castle Town

420 years ago, the lord of the Fukui Clan, Yuki Hideyasu inherited Echizen from his father, Tokugawa Ieyasu.

To celebrate this, the Fukui City Museum of History will be putting literature from the time, old records, drawings of Fukui Castle at the time on display, as well as introduce the castle town we now know to be the Fukui Clan's home base.

When: July 23 (Thu.) – Aug. 30 (Sun.), 2020

Where: Fukui City History Museum

Admission Fee: 500 for adults, 400 for university and high school students

*Middle school students and younger, elder of age 70 or up, and those with disabilities and their accompanied assistant will be granted free admission.